Union Budget 2017 - An analysis by BCAS

AVAILABLE NOW IN ENGLISH &
GUJARATI

After demonetization the next significant event is the Union Budget 2017 preponed to February 1, 2017 and for the very first time the railway budget is merged with the Union Budget. As the nation awaits to see the changes in Make in India initiative and ease of doing businesses in India, it is eagerly awaiting for a more simplified tax structure and direct tax norms. Will the budget scrap ICDS? What is the Government's next step towards stabilizing the economy in terms of currency crises? How will the budget stimulate growth in various sectors of the economy? Can India look forward for better infrastructure, roadways, railways and a Swachh Bharat?
