Four Day Orientation Course on Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA)

The Foreign Exchange Management Act (the Act) was introduced in 1999. To relax foreign exchange restrictions which resulted in significant flow of investment into India over the years - making India one of the most lucrative FDI destinations in the world. Indian overseas investment policies have also been progressively liberalized and simplified to meet the changing needs of a growing economy. Various borrowing options are now available for Indian entities which hitherto were a distant dream. FDI in LLP is a reality now. Recently, Reserve Bank re-wrote various notifications regulating capital account transactions which were in operation till now. Also, options for Non Resident Indians have opened up by a large extent. Professionals can equip themselves to answer their clients on these regulations. Crypto currencies are all the rage and one need to know the implications under FEMA and Prevention of Money Laundering Act. This 4 day orientation course is planned for professionals to learn and relearn the whole gamut of FEMA at the hands of experts on the subject.
