To commemorate the contributions of Late Shri Pradeep A Shah, past Chairman, Human Resource Development Committee who initiated the practice of Leadership Training Programs at BCAS, we have planned the 17th Leadership Training Retreat on the theme "Principle-Centred Leadership Spectrum". Our endeavour is to not only continue but to take the legacy forward as well.

This announcement is circulated well in advance so that members & their spouses can participate. It will help in sharpening skills for achieving overall results.

Be it business, profession or domestic, all activities in life should have set-priorities for achieving success in life. This training program is designed such that the participants will learn about tools and techniques carefully picked up by the facilitator, Mr. Gopal Sehjpal, based on his in-depth study and practices of renowned leadership and management gurus. With his expertise and experience of decades, Mr. Sehjpal will lead the discussion for all the sessions planned. The honourarium of our training faculty is sponsored from the contribution received from the family of Late Shri Pradeepbhai Shah

Theme : Principle Centred Leadership Spectrum
