Corporate & Commercial Law Study Circle

Convenors: CA Ishaan Patkar, CA Preeti Oza & CA Urvish Mehta

"Prosecution for Cheque Bouncing - Overview of the law, issues and solutions."

"Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act enacts stringent penalties, including imprisonment, if a cheque is issued and not honoured. It is important to be aware of the legal nitty gritty of this and the concomitant provisions. We have invited Advocate Kartik Garg, who is a criminal lawyer practicing in the Bombay High Court having an extensive White Collar Crime practice to enlighten our Members on this subject. He also regularly deals with cases under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

This session is ideal for those who want to explore a new practice area, viz advisory services in White Collar Crime. We will be having other sessions as well on other financial criminal laws in this Study Circle. This session is also useful for the general practitioner who has to deal with personal and corporate finance."
