Lecture Meeting on

Filing of Income Tax Returns for AY 2021-22

Dear Members

ITR utilities for AY 2021-22 for most of the ITR forms are now available on the e-filing portal. With focus on faceless assessments, appeals and more technology driven initiatives by the tax authorities, preparation and filing of ITR forms is no more a mechanical exercise. It requires in-depth knowledge of law as well as knowledge about the various fields in the ITR forms.

This year apart from the new forms, the professionals have to deal with certain amendments that were brought in the law vide Finance Act 2020 which would affect the taxation of income for A.Y. 2021-22. Further, this year, the income tax portal has been completely revamped which will require the professional guidance on easefulness and resolving complexities.

It is imperative that taxpayers, as well as tax professionals, are fully aware of the minutest details to be filled in. To help our members and their staff to understand the changes in the ITR forms as well as in the law affecting the computation of income for AY 2021-22, the BCAS has arranged a lecture meeting the details of which are as under
