Sixteenth Residential Leadership Retreat 2018

Man is constantly in search of happiness. Every year HDTI Committee organizes Residential Leadership Camp on varied subjects. This has assisted many of the regular participants to find the meaning in life and become better human beings. The HDTI Committee now announces the “Sixteenth Leadership Residential Retreat 2018” based on the theme ‘Saptapadi of happiness in Family’ (Seven Steps to family happiness). It will also touch upon ways to build Family brand in profession, vocation or business. The Retreat will be held in February spread across 2 days and 1 night.

The learned faculty Shri Mahendra Garodiya, (who guided us in the Fifteenth non Residential Leadership Workshop 2017 on the theme of Chanakya Business Sutra) has again consented to anchor the programme this year.

(Saptapadi) Seven steps based on our time tested values and culture are: Common Vision, Success Habits, Accountability, Un-conditional Love & Respect, Appreciation, Family as a brand and Celebration together.

Takeaways:

Through this Retreat, the participants:

- Will experience and rediscover this profound knowledge and learn how to apply it in current turbulent times.
- Discover how to be happy prospering materially in ethical and humanitarian manner and with inner happiness.
- Will resound that prosperity and happiness are not mutually exclusive.

It aims to guide the participants to share happiness with family, society, in profession and work environment.

Members are encouraged to register for this workshop with their spouse.

The learned faculty will help the participants to develop personal family programmes including a detailed schedule of implementing the lessons learnt during the workshop.
