Dear Esteemed Friends,

Warm Greetings!

At BCAS we always endeavor to discharge our professional social responsibilities by spreading awareness about community welfare services amongst our fellow Members/Students and actively contributing to human causes.

To achieve this objective, the BCAS Foundation and HDTI Committee has organised a SOULFUL TRIP for two days to visit Muni Seva Ashram - Goraj (Baroda) on Thursday 14th & Friday 15th June 2018.

DETAILS ABOUT MUNI SEVA ASHRAM:

“MUNI SEVA ASHRAM” is a vast complex of hospital, schools and various social institutions located at Goraj village, Vadodara District, Gujarat. This Ashram was established by late Ms. Anuben Thakkar in 1978 with the divine inspiration from her Guru Muni Maharaj to serve the poor tribal people. She began with a small hut, however today the Ashram operates programs focused on agriculture, education and medicine -- a nationally renowned cancer hospital, home for senior citizens, several schools from kindergarten to 12 grade, agricultural programs to free farmers from market forces, a school for the mentally challenged and a cow-shed to name a few (For more details please visit <http://www.greenashram.org/>). Thanks to Dr. Vikram Patel whose selfless efforts have helped the Ashram to expand in multi dimensions serving people from all across the society without any discrimination of caste, creed or religion.

Enroute to Goraj, we plan to visit Ashakta Ashram – Dakor, which is a loving and caring home for senior citizens.
