Suburban Study Circle Meeting

The first financial year after implementation of GST has just concluded and most accounting professionals are busy in closing books of accounts of their clients for F.Y. 2017-18. In addition to the routine accounts closure checklist, this year will require special attention to accounting related to GST liability and credits. Chartered Accountants are also facing the daunting task of reconciling GST returns with the books of accounts of their client and corresponding corrective actions to be taken.

The Suburban Study Circle has organised a meeting for detailed discussion on the issues to be taken care from GST perspective while closing the books of accounts. CA's as well as accounts executives from industry can benefit out of the discussion. The Speaker CA Gaurav Save will discuss the following areas:
