Title:	Internal Audit - Practical Case Studies
Features:	“Internal Audit – Practical Case Studies” is a compilation that brings focus on practical aspects of internal audit. It is the updated version of the articles in BCAJ between 2004 to 2009 written by the authors. The articles have been updated considering the new framework of standards, including ‘Internal Financial Controls’ and other global best practices in vogue. The chapters are annotated with several “additional points and information”. These comments provide additional observations, reading material and data points on the subject matter of the chapter. This compilation will adorn the library of audit professionals both in industry and profession. It is a very special book considering its sharp focus on the ‘practice’ of internal audit.
